

The Business History Research Fund – call for applications for funding

The foundation The Business History Research Fund seeks to support historical research at BI Norwegian Business School, particularly research on modern and contemporary Norwegian business history.

The Foundation shall:

- help initiate and facilitate pilot projects, preparatory seminars or larger research initiatives within business history or closely related fields
- contribute to the development of a vibrant research community in business history at BI, particularly by supporting research travels, guest lectures, seminars/conferences and the publication of new research.

All BI faculty can apply for funding. The application has to comply with the purpose of the foundation. If the project has already received funding from other sources, please clarify this in the application. All projects receiving support must provide a report to the Board of the Fund

The application should specify the main research objective of the project, and, if relevant, briefly outline research questions, sources, existing research and analytical perspectives. The application also needs to contain a CV and a brief description of the applicants background.

Total yearly funding from the Fund is normally around NOK 40 000 – 60 000.

Application deadline: Friday, October 15th

The application can be sent to espen.ekberg@bi.no

Best wishes,

Espen Ekberg
